Aleksandra Popović

Founder, first CEO, Chairperson of the Board of Directors, Strategic Advisor

Aleksandra Popović is on the position of Strategic Advisor of the Lovćen banka. Since the establishment of the bank in August 2014 to October 2016, she served as Chief Executive Officer, and after that she was the Chairperson of the Board of Directors of Lovćen banka. The bank was established thanks to her vision to contribute to sustainable economic development and better living conditions of the country, with the desire to use her rich experience in contracting and arranging credit lines from foreign sources to finance Montenegrin projects in the field of tourism, infrastructure, manufacturing and services, with special emphasis on support to SME sector. This was a process in which, under her leadership, microfinance institution MFI Kontakt AD grew into Lovćen banka, supported by DEG - one of the largest investment and development institutions in Europe that is focused on investments of small and medium-sized enterprises in developing countries.

Along with the constant work on professional advancement, during her career she directed her energy and power to the promotion of the Montenegrin economy and banking at numerous international conferences and panels, to partnerships and cooperation with reputable international financial institutions, as well as new development projects, among which the work on establishing of Crnogorska Komercijalna Banka as a significant banking brand, to coordination of strategic communication in the process of sale of Crnogorska Komercijalna Banka to OTP Bank, membership in the Board of Directors of CKB, administration and management of business operation of Microcredit financial institution Kontakt AD Podgorica.

 Banking career of Aleksandra Popović, which began in 2001, was preceded by a ten-year work at other companies among which employment in public company Post of Montenegro at the position of Advisor for International Business.
